

July 25, 2018

GanaEight Coin

Ltd.

A Ganapati Group Company

Ganapati Group has announced the appointment of two lawyers as Co-CEOs of GanaEight Coin Limited, the Issuer of G8C

On July 25th, 2018, Ganapati Group announced the appointment of two lawyers from Japan and Malta as Co-CEOs of GanaEight Coin Limited, the issuer of the G8C tokens to be used in online casinos.

Hayato Terai and Dr. Kristina Deguara, both warranted lawyers in Japan and Malta respectively, have assumed the posts as Co-CEOs of GanaEight Coin Limited, the legal entity that will issue G8C tokens and engage in the practical affairs of the ICO.

Having lawyers from Japan and Malta cooperating with each other as Co-CEOs will ensure the compliance of the legislation in both countries, with a focus on the Republic of Malta where the G8C tokens will be issued.

This follows the July 7th announcement that Ganapati Group will be launching GanaEight Coin Limited, the issuer of the G8C tokens.

The Ganapati Group is an enterprise group owned by Ganapati PLC, listed on the NEX market in the United Kingdom. With offices in London, Japan, Los Angeles, Malta, Estonia and Curacao, Ganapati group main business has focused on planning, developing and providing innovative online casino games.

Ganapati Group is building on its past success in order to launch itself into an even greater future with GanaEight Coin Limited, the dynamic platform that will revolutionise the online casino industry.

G8C Token, will be one of the first online casino tokens founded by professionals with experience in online casinos, IT, finance and Japanese Content.

Through the appointment of the Co-CEOs Ganapati Group intend to facilitate a successful and steady development of the ICO and position themselves in the forefront of the online casino industry.

Website:

<https://ganapati.com/>

Contact:

Ganapati PLC

Toshitaka Nakajima

Email: info@ganapati.io